Nose

Ripe cherries, sour plums, black pepper and dark chocolate.

Palate

The whole mouth fills with a satin explosion of soft berry fruits and silky tannins.

Pair

Pizza, pasta, the usual Italian fare.

Style

This 2020 vintage really takes that generosity of vibrant fruit and creates a super approachable wine using gentle cap management techniques during the fermentation and a long, uninterrupted maturation firstly in small oak, then in large format. Hand-harvested, destemmed with the rollers out, retaining as much whole berry as possible. Fermented until dry on skins (10 days) with wild yeast. Hand plunged for gentler extraction.

Dolcetto, the little sweetie: soft, mellow and moreish. The deliciousness of Dolcetto embodies the spirit of the Dead Winemaker's Society; a morbid club that celebrates the makers of beautiful beverages that, through their art, inspire us to continually push the boundaries of winemaking.
