"It has taken us a while to make the perfect Pét Nat. I have made a few in my previous lives at other establishments and it's always a tricky process, but with Realismo, we've nailed it. Taking Pinot Meunier, the cheekiest child of the Champagne trinity, we produced a nice bright pink base wine then bottled it in the dying stages of its primary fermentation. In doing so, we captured lovely floral notes with tart berry tones and introduced a lively fizz. It's clean, fresh and best used as an aperitif."
