Nose

White flowers, pear and brioche.

Palate

A soft swell of sweetness up front quickly dries out to a fresh finish with a pear-like acidity that leaves the mouth watering for more

Pair

Good times, good friends and oysters.

Style

Machine picked and gently pressed to tank. Flootation settles out the good from the bad, and the juice is fermented cool until dry, and stopped before MLF can occur. The wine is then matured on lees for 6 months before being blended with the previous cuvee. Secondary fermentation in tank, or Charmat method is used to carbonate the wine then transferred to bottle.

Story

Sunny-side up! Here comes the sun, bringing with it all the joy and prosperity evoked by the radiant beast in the sky. So it's a no-brainer that the Prosecco turned up the Sun card. This wine is a conduit for good times brought to you in bubble form, shining with positivity and purity. It's got a burst of sweetness up-front, then dries out to the finish, leaving you with a mouth-watering desire for another sip.
