Variety

Grenache Rosé

Vintage

2022

Region

Langhorne Creek

Nose

Wild strawberries and red apple skins with a hint of dried herbs and custard.

Palate

Soft and textural, the palate has a lively acidity that is focused on the delicate structure.

Pair

Charcuterie platter with plenty of pickled sides.

Style

Gently pressed off when it arrived at the winery. Fermented with neutral yeast until dry. Aged in stainless for 10 months with no MLF.

Maturation

Spur pruned VSP permanent cordons with catch wires. Shoot thinned, conventionally managed with drip irrigation.

Story

Tarot Rosé has undergone a bit of a revival over the past few years and transformed in style to focus on the fresher, dryer and more textural examples. Hence, the Star Card was the perfect choice for our beautiful rosé as it predicts renewed hope and faith - working with our shift to a delicious, single variety Grenache rosé.
